

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 123

Adopted in Senate June 9, 2014

Secretary of the Senate

Adopted in Assembly June 26, 2014

Chief Clerk of the Assembly

This resolution was received by the Secretary of State this _____ day of _____, 2014, at _____ o'clock ____M.

Deputy Secretary of State

RESOLUTION CHAPTER _____

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 123—Relative to Voter Awareness Week.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCR 123, Wyland. Voter Awareness Week.

This measure would proclaim the week of September 21 through September 27, 2014, as Voter Awareness Week.

WHEREAS, an essential part of an effective democracy is the opportunity for all eligible people to register and to vote; and

WHEREAS, California's voter turnout among young adults is low compared to that of other states; it was only 41.6 percent in the 2012 presidential election; and

WHEREAS, Californians under the age of 25 increased their registration rates by 8 percent in 2012; and

WHEREAS, Young adults who are provided with practical information about voting feel more prepared to participate and become active, engaged citizens who will benefit California's political climate in the future; and

WHEREAS, While most youth voter outreach efforts target college students, there is a tremendous gap in registration and turnout rates between young adults with college experience and those without; and

WHEREAS, Young adults are the best resource available to encourage other young adults to register and to vote; and

WHEREAS, Involving young adults in civic education opportunities, activities, and discussion can increase the likelihood that others in their households will vote; and

WHEREAS, People who begin voting at a younger age are more likely to vote consistently later in life; and

WHEREAS, As young adults comprise a larger portion of the voting population than the baby boomers, it is necessary to encourage the youth of our state to participate in the democratic system in order to train and prepare the next generation of political and civic leaders; and

WHEREAS, California has the opportunity to boost registration rates among young adults through the use of its online voter registration application, launched in 2012, which young adults prefer to the traditional voter registration application; and

WHEREAS, A primary purpose of California's schools is to prepare students to become active citizens; and

WHEREAS, There is an ongoing need to increase youth civic participation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims the week of September 21 through 27, 2014, as Voter Awareness Week; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages all of California's public schools to participate in Voter Awareness Week activities; and be it further

Resolved, that the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

Attest:

Secretary of State